The “INTRA2D” Project Headlines and Wholesale Liquidation

On March 20th 2014, seven years after releasing the first previews of the game, the independent developer THQ Nordic released its last Final Fantasy XIV Online North American Laws concerning electric bicycles are about to change in Oregon. The state legislature passed a bill to amend the existing electric bicycle laws and make them even stricter. Enter Oregon, situated in the Pacific Northwestern corner of the United States, and by all appearances a fine place. One only has to look as far as the day’s weather forecast, however, to see the cliché of American weather behind what appears as a peaceful and tidy picture. On the home front, there are often and unpleasant wind storms; on the road, there is often and tiresome traffic. Oregon was even the location for, and winner of, the dance-off between “Will It Play in Peoria?” and “Crash Test Dummies”. No matter. The last state concerning electric bicycles is on the pre-emptive strike, as it is about to become much more stringent and more restrictive concerning the legal status of such electric bicycles. It is called Senate Bill 970, and it will amend the existing Oregon e-bike rules and make those rules even stricter on behalf of the residents of Oregon. Of course, it is necessary to qualify that statement with stating that it is the the intent of the bill to tighten the rules for electric bicycles, rather than to loosen the rules for all bicycles. For, to have electric bicycle traffic laws, the state of Oregon once chose to ban electric bicycles from being operated on the left side of Oregon highways. This was back in
